

Immaculate Heart High School

August 1, 2017

Dear Alumni, Friends, and Family,

2017 has been a big year for the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I, Sister Alice have been appointed principal for Immaculate Heart High School. The High School has been totally renovated, computers have been updated, and the curriculum is being revised including the implementation of new educational opportunities. In these trying times, the Sisters commitment is even greater to maintain academic excellence and promote Catholic family values.

We are happy to announce that we are celebrating 100 years of serving the Tucson community. In 1917, the Sisters were passing through on their way to California when the Bishop of Tucson asked them to stay a while. 100 years later the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart are still here dedicated to providing a Catholic education to the residents of Oro Valley and the greater Tucson community. In 1930 the Sisters opened their own school, Immaculate Heart Academy, in downtown Tucson and in 1962 Immaculate Heart High School was built on Magee Rd., where we now have a campus that incorporates a pre-school, an elementary school, the middle school and the High School. We have been dedicated to providing individualized, Catholic education for 100 years and look forward to the future.

The Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary say "thank you" to all the people who have supported us throughout the years. We ask that you join us in celebrating by attending our Centennial Dinner on August 26, 2017 at the Immaculate Heart School Gym beginning at 4:00 pm. Tickets for the Dinner may be purchased by calling the school, 520 297 2851. The celebration of the Mass at St. Augustine Cathedral on August 27, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. will be celebrated by Bishop Kicanas.

We all give thanks for 100 years of service, offering them for the greater glory of God and asking for continued strength and resources for the next 100.

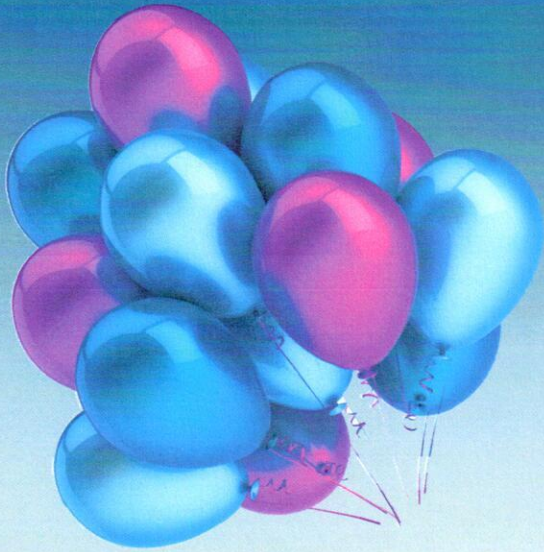

Please call today, 520 297-2851, and reserve your spot for the dinner.

In Mary's complete trust,
